

Declaration of American Values

We the people of the United States of America, at this crucial time in history, do hereby affirm the core consensus values which form the basis of America's greatness, that all men and women from every race and ethnicity are created equal and are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We adhere to the rule of law embodied in the Constitution of the United States and to the principles of liberty on which America was founded. In order to maintain the blessings of liberty and justice for ourselves and our posterity, and recognizing that personal responsibility is the basis of our self-governing Nation, we declare our allegiance –

1. To secure the sanctity of human life by affirming the dignity of and right to life for the disabled, the ill, the aged, the poor, the disadvantaged, and for the unborn from the moment of conception. Every person is made in the image of God, and it is the responsibility and duty of all individuals and communities of faith to extend the hand of loving compassion to care for those in poverty and distress.
2. To secure our national interest in the institution of marriage and family by embracing the union of one man and one woman as the sole form of legitimate marriage and the proper basis of family.
3. To secure the fundamental rights of parents to the care, custody, and control of their children regarding their upbringing and education.
4. To secure the free exercise of religion for all people, including the freedom to acknowledge God through our public institutions and other modes of public expression and the freedom of religious conscience without coercion by penalty or force of law.
5. To secure the moral dignity of each person, acknowledging that obscenity, pornography, and indecency debase our communities, harm our families, and undermine morality and respect. Therefore, we promote enactment and enforcement of laws to protect decency and morality.
6. To secure the right to own, possess, and manage private property without arbitrary interference from government, while acknowledging the necessity of maintaining a proper and balanced care and stewardship of the environment and natural resources for the health and safety of our families.
7. To secure the individual right to own, possess, and use firearms as central to the preservation of peace and liberty.
8. To secure a system of checks and balances between the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches within both state and federal governments, so that no one branch—particularly the judiciary—usurps the authority of the other two, and to maintain the constitutional principles of federalism which divide power between the state and federal governments.
9. To secure our national sovereignty and domestic tranquility by maintaining a strong military; establishing and maintaining secure national borders; participating in international and diplomatic affairs without ceding authority to foreign powers that diminish or interfere with our unalienable rights; and being mindful of our history as a nation of immigrants, promoting immigration policies that observe the rule of law and are just, fair, swift, and foster national unity.
10. To secure a system of fair taxes that are not punitive against the institution of marriage or family and are not progressive in nature, and within a limited government framework, to encourage economic opportunity, free enterprise, and free market competition.

You are invited to visit IFA's new home page and the G.A.P. web site launched last month. These are the fruits of a busy summer evaluating all programs and operations and launching the G.A.P. campaign to inform, connect and mobilize multitudes of additional intercessors across America. We trust you will find the new sites relevant, strategically informative, easy to navigate, useful in connecting with partners-in-prayer in your communities and providing tools you can use to form prayer groups and regional prayer networks.

Take a little time to click on and explore the drop-down tabs across the top, inform yourself on the G.A.P. campaign, navigate through the program buttons and "Crucial Prayer Topics" compilation in the right menu area. Listen to Dave Kubal's one-minute Radio Spots and pray in agreement. Please pray for the spread of these, and prayerfully consider sponsoring some on stations in your area.

"In the News for Prayer" postings will help you intercede with understanding and present developments on key issues in Washington and across the nation. Many are incorporated into the weekly "On Watch in Washington" E-mail alerts which you can sign up to receive, even into your iPhone or other smart phones.
