What are two elements of this calling? The first element is that watchmen are to be diligent. Watchmen are to never give our Heavenly Father peace until He has accomplished all that is possible with a nation (Isaiah 62:6). We are to stand watch until there is an answer (Habakkuk 2:1).

The other element of our calling is accountability. It is quite chilling: If we hear from the Lord and do not “speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life,” God will hold us accountable (Ezekiel 3:17-19). It is our responsibility to be obedient and speak what has been spoken to us.

We must not give up the fight to make America the greatest nation—in obedience to our Heavenly Father—on the face of the earth. We must fight this battle with diligence as watchmen on our knees, realizing there is strict accountability.

CHURCH PRAY!

A CALL TO STAND WATCH

BY DAVID KUBAL

Our founding fathers set out to make this nation the greatest nation. They understood how critical it was for them to seek “Divine Providence” in order for this to occur. At a critical moment in the forming of our Constitution even Ben Franklin, one of the least religious of our founding fathers, was quoted urging his fellow framers that, “prayers [must be held] imploring the assistance of Heaven and its blessing on our deliberation.” Without the assistance of our Heavenly Father, America would never become a “praise in the earth.”

The desire woven into our culture for America to be the best is a good one—as long as we understand that only our Heavenly Father can do this for His Name’s sake and for His Kingdom. And who is it that moves the hand of our Heavenly Father? Watchmen.

There is much talk about watchmen and God’s intent for this role. It is amazing our Heavenly Father even chooses to use watchmen. He could have put the creation on autopilot or just left it to evolve randomly, but He is so eager to have us involved in shaping history that He has established this position.

“I have set watchmen on your walls.... They shall never hold their peace day or night. You who make mention of the Lord, do not keep silent, and give Him no rest ... till He makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth.” —Isaiah 62:6-7 NKJ

MARCH 2011
PRAYER FOCUS

Sunday, March 6, 2011
FISCAL POLICY AND BUDGET – Pray as Congress is debating and making Budget Appropriations for 2011-2012. Pray that the Lord grant “wisdom from above” (James 1:5, 3:13-18), and that biblical and Constitutional principles for sound fiscal policy be upheld.

Sunday, March 13, 2011
COMPULSIONS AND ADDICTIONS – Millions are gripped with obsessive/compulsive habits and addictions to nicotine, alcohol, and other drugs, illicit sex and pornography, gambling, greed, and materialistic pursuits. Pray that all who need to be set free be granted grace to come out of denial and to seek community and church-based counsel, and recovery groups.

Sunday, March 20, 2011
LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS – Pray for a fresh propagation of the gospel, and the establishment of more Bible study, prayer, and fellowship groups among your area’s sheriff and police departments, amid judges, lawyers, and other workers in the judicial and legal communities, and among business security forces. Pray that believers in law enforcement be granted courage to live openly for Christ.

Sunday, March 27, 2011
JERUSALEM – Pray for Jewish and Palestinian officials, for unity in the body of Christ and for the Lord’s peace and glory to be upon the city of Jerusalem.
